Pablo Cano and Jim Hammond's Original Puppet Production DOG

Saturday, March 13 2pm

Great works of art are interpreted and transformed into shadow puppetry with the character "DOG" moving throughout each piece. Due to the strongly emotional and evocative imagery in some of the panels, this performance is recommended for ages 10 through adult, and would be particularly suited to inspire young art students. DOG is Hammond's first production with Cano since his 6 year project working on the National Broadway Tour of The Lion King as a Puppet and Mask Master.
